

SUPPORTING ELDERLY VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Tallinn, Estonia, August 28-29, 2018

Tuesday, 28 August 2018

Social Insurance Board

Endla 8, 2nd floor

Wednesday, 29 August 2018

The Parliament Of Estonia

Lossi plats 1a

- 10:00 Morning coffee and registration
- 10:15 Welcoming remarks and introduction to WHOSEFVA (Pille Tsopp-Pagan, WSIC, Estonia)
- 10:45 Elderly and healthcare provider perceptions on domestic violence (Maria Rösslhumer, AÖF, Austria)
- 11:15 Training health care providers to support elderly victims of violence (Sirkka Perttu, VoiVa, Finland)
- 12:00 Online Training to support elderly victims of violence (Hector C. Pagan and Olena Solohub, UT, Estonia)
- 12:30 Break
- 13:30 Best practices for providing support to elderly victims of violence in healthcare settings protocols (Nicholas Spetsidis, UWAH, Greece)
- 14:00 Evaluation of WHOSEFVA project (Giorgi Davidovi, UT, Estonia)

- 10:00 Morning coffee and registration
- 10:15 Welcoming remarks and introduction of WHOSEFVA project (Pille Tsopp-Pagan, WSIC, Estonia)
- 10:30 Overview of the main activities and results of WHOSEFVA project (Nikita Lumijõe, UT/WSIC, Estonia)
- 11:00 Estonian policy environment (Pille Tsopp-Pagan, WSIC, Estonia)
- 11:30 Local and EU level policy recommendations (Hector Charles Pagan and Olena Solohub, UT, Estonia)
- 12:00 Break
- 12:30 Public discussion – Multiagency cooperation against elderly abuse (Nicholas Spetsidis, Eleni Giakoumaki, Greece, Pille Tsopp-Pagan, Estonia)
- 14:00 Closing of the conference (Nikita Lumijõe, UT/WSIC, Estonia)

WHOSEFVA is a two-year project co-funded by the European Commission under the Daphne programme, that was started in 2016 to support elderly women who are victims of abuse in six countries: Estonia, Austria, Finland, Greece, Latvia and the UK. This conference will bring together healthcare professionals, social workers, domestic violence support workers and policy makers to explore how elderly victims of violence can be best helped.

For more information, see our website: <http://whosefva-gbv.eu/et/> or contact: Nikita Lumijõe at: nikita.lumijoe@ut.ee (Tel. +372 56 156 330). To register, please fill out the registration form.

UNIVERSITY OF TARTU

With financial support from the Rights, Equality and Citizenship Programme of the European Union

